

THE LAHORE JOURNAL OF ECONOMICS

Lahore School of Economics

Papers presented at
The Fifth Annual Conference on
Management of the Pakistan Economy

Growth, Trade and Development

20th to 21st April, 2009

Lahore School of Economics, Lahore, Pakistan.

Editors' Introduction	Musleh-ud Din, Ejaz Ghani and Usman Qadir
Azam Amjad Chaudhry Total Factor Productivity Growth in Pakistan: An Analysis of the Agricultural and Manufacturing Sectors	Recent Experience and Future Prospects of Pakistan's Trade with China
Theresa Thompson Chaudhry Microeconomic Flexibility in Pakistan and India: Employment Adjustment at the Firm Level	Irfan ul Haque The Rise of Bilateralism in Trade and its Implications for Pakistan
Hamna Ahmed Capital Flows and Real Exchange Rate Overvaluation – a Chronic Ailment: Evidence from Pakistan	Sikander Rahim International Trade Arising from Wage Differences
	Dushni Weerakoon Bilateral FTAs in South Asia: Recasting the Regionalism Debate
	Zareen F. Naqvi Pakistan-India Trade Potential and Issues