Lahore Journal of Business – Call for Papers

Aims and Scope

Lahore Journal of Business (LJB), a peer reviewed publication of Lahore School of Economics, is aimed at providing a specialized forum for dissemination of qualitative and quantitative research in various areas of business administration. LJB invites researchers, policy makers and analysts to submit competitive theoretical and empirical papers that explore and contribute to the understanding of various areas in business domain. The Journal aims at bringing together state of art research findings, particularly from emerging markets, in various business disciplines including (but not limited to) accounting, banking, management, marketing, finance, investments, human resource management and organizational behavior.

Paper Submission and Review Process

The submission of articles will be followed by an editorial review to determine the relevance of manuscript and scope of the Journal. On editorial acceptance, there will be a double-blind review by our advisory review panel that comprise of eminent international and local researchers and scholars. The recommendations/comments of the referees will be communicated to the corresponding authors. The papers are now being considered for publication. The manuscript can be submitted in electronic format at <https://mc04.manuscriptcentral.com/ljb>

Key Areas of Interest: Accounting, Banking, Management, Marketing, Finance, Strategic Management, Strategy, Human Resource Management, Organizational Behavior.

Notes for Authors

1. The manuscript should be between 7000 and 10000 words in length including the references.
2. The cover page of the manuscript should have the title of the paper, the names(s) of the author(s), and a footnote giving the current affiliation of the author(s) and any acknowledgments. The cover page should be submitted separately from the main text file.
3. The main text file should be submitted as a blinded manuscript. It should not contain any information that can be used to identify the author(s).
4. The manuscript should include an abstract (maximum 200 words). The abstract should be followed by Journal of Economic Literature (JEL) classifications and keywords (four to six). Please note that JEL classifications are also available for marketing and management-related topics. For more on JEL classifications please consult <https://www.aeaweb.org/jel/guide/jel.php>
5. The main text of the article should be in single-column format, double-line spaced with a font style of Times New Roman. All main headings should be bold with size 16, while subheadings should be bold with font size 14. The main text should be justified with size 12.
6. The numerals used for headings and subheadings should be 1, 1.1, and 1.1.1. It is advised to limit the level of headings within the main text file.
7. Distinguish between figures (diagrams) and tables (statistical material) and number them in separate sequences. Each table/figure should have a brief but descriptive title. All tables/figures should be self-explanatory, incorporating any necessary descriptive material in a note at the base of the table.
8. Each mathematical formula, figure, and table should be submitted as editable text, not as pasted images.
9. Footnotes should be placed on their specific pages and be numbered sequentially.
10. References in the text should include the name(s) of the author(s) with the year of publication in parentheses, and all references should conform to the APA style.
11. All references used in the text should be listed at the end of the text in alphabetical order of the authors' surnames and follow the APA style. For more details about referencing, please refer to the APA style manual.

12. The LJB can require authors to provide the data used in the analyses for the purpose of replication. The data should be clearly and precisely documented and be made available to the journal reviewer (if requested).
13. The names of two potential reviewers along with their contact information should be provided as part of the submission.

The Lahore School of Economics

The Lahore School of Economics (established 1993) is one of Pakistan's leading centres of learning for teaching and research in economics, finance and business administration. The Lahore School of Economics' objectives include: (i) The training of young Pakistanis as professional economists, finance managers, accountants, financial analysts, bankers and business executives, and (ii) Undertaking research in economics, management, finance and banking to further deepen understanding of major economic facts, issues and policies.

The Lahore School was granted a Charter in January, 1997 by an Act of the Provincial Assembly of the Punjab: The Lahore School of Economics Act 1997 (Act II of 1997). The Charter vests the powers of an independent degree granting institution to The Lahore School.

The Lahore School has both undergraduate and graduate programs in economics, business information systems and finance. Its postgraduate program leading to the MPhil and PhD degree is administered through the Lahore School's Centre for Research in Economics and Business (CREB). The student body and faculty comprise both national and expatriate Pakistanis and The Lahore School encourages expatriate Pakistanis to join as students or as faculty.

The Lahore School's publication program comprises The Lahore Journal of Economics, The Lahore Journal of Business (bi-annual publications), Lahore Journal of Policy Studies, a Seminar Paper Series and a Text Book Series. The Program encourages both in-house and external contributors.
