LAHORE SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES DEPARTMENT

Students at Lahore School of Economics have immense opportunities to enrich their education through extracurriculars and co-curricular activities. We at Lahore School of Economics believe that students can maximize their benefit of university life by getting immersed in their hobbies and interests. Extracurriculars are helpful for students by providing them additional opportunities which will contribute towards their personal growth and to be responsible adults of the society. We believe that getting involved in the societies helps the students by creating qualities like leadership, team-building and engagement. Through extracurricular activities students can make like-minded friendships and contribute towards community service. We encourage our students to be actively involved in the activities of their interests. The Extracurricular Activities Department's primary objective is to assist, guide and to benefit from the societies and in the planning of events which take place throughout the year. Currently we have more than 17 societies which include hobbies and academics-based societies.

LAHORE SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS PHOTOGRAPHY SOCIETY

ORIENTATION

The Photography Society's orientation was held on September 23, 2024, at ITC C, with a sunset-themed event. It began with an introduction to the society by the society heads, followed by a recap of the previous year's achievements. Society badges were presented to the council members. Two former presidents delivered speeches, followed by an address from the current President to mark the occasion. The event featured several engaging activities, including bake sales and various games for participants.

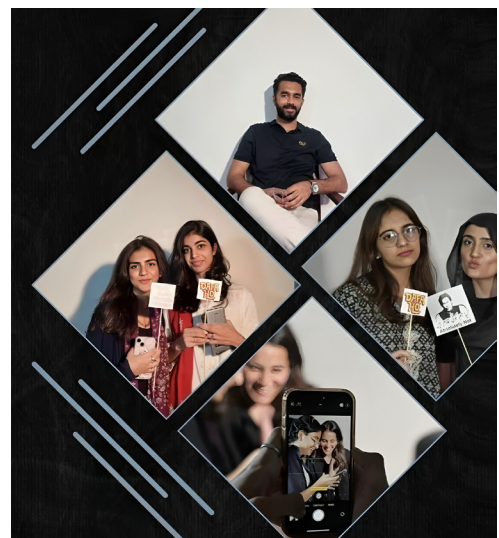

PORTRAIT PHOTOGRAPHY DAY

The Portrait Lounge occurred on Thursday, October 3, from 2:00 PM to 3:00 PM at ITC A. This photography-focused event allowed students to capture photographs in various styles. Participants posed for pictures in the beautifully arranged photo booths with diverse lighting options.

The event featured various activities, including games, crochet accessories, food stalls, and more!

A scavenger hunt was organized, with prizes awarded to the top team. The event was a resounding success, with many students attending and thoroughly enjoying the experience.

SnapFest 2.0 was a thrilling competition that celebrated creativity and talent. Held on 13 November 2024, from 11:45 AM to 2:45 PM at the Garden Café, participants competed in three exciting categories—Reel Making, Photography, and B-Roll—showcasing their unique ideas and skills.

The event was sponsored by ECS and Brim Burgers, whose support and goodies added to the excitement. The day began with an introduction by the organizers, setting a lively and engaging tone for the competition. Participants amazed everyone with their impressive creativity and expertise.

Winners were awarded prizes, and the event concluded on a high note, inspiring attendees to explore and celebrate their creative sides. SnapFest 2.0 was a resounding success!

AKS-E-HIPHOP

The Lahore School Photography Society (LSEPS), in collaboration with LSMGS, hosted Aks-e-HipHop on 12 December 2024, from 2:00 PM to 6:00 PM at ITC A, an exciting event celebrating the fusion of photography and hip-hop culture.

The event featured two engaging rounds. The first round was a Street Photography Competition, where participants captured the vibrant essence of street life, showcasing their creativity and photography skills. The second round, Rock n Clicks, included an inspiring talk and an electrifying performance by Talha Anjum, which was met with immense enthusiasm and applause.

Aks-e-HipHop celebrated creativity, self-expression, and fresh ideas, encouraging participants to explore unique perspectives. The event left a lasting impression on all who attended, making it a truly memorable experience.

SABOOR & KISMETT WEDDINGS WORKSHOP

The Lahore School Photography Society hosted an insightful photography workshop in collaboration with Saboor and Kismett Weddings on Thursday, 20th February 2025, at TRC 5 from 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM. The session was led by industry professionals who guided participants through essential photography elements such as storytelling, composition, and advanced shooting techniques.

The workshop began with an engaging introduction and hands-on training where attendees could refine their skills with expert feedback. A photo walk around the LSE campus allowed participants to put their learning into practice, exploring lighting, angles, and creative perspectives.

The event struck a perfect balance between theory and practical experience, leaving attendees inspired and more confident in their photography abilities. The workshop highlighted the importance of visual storytelling and sparked a renewed passion for wedding and lifestyle photography among students.

THEME MONTH

The Lahore School Photography Society organized a vibrant Theme Month that brought color and creativity to campus life. Each week featured a theme of beige, blue, and green, inviting students to dress in the chosen color on the designated day.

The football ground transformed into a lively space filled with coordinated outfits and cheerful energy, reflecting the unique vibe of each color. To celebrate the spirit of self-expression, LSEPS conducted themed photoshoots that captured the enthusiasm and participation of students throughout the month.

Theme Month was a fun and inclusive way to foster community engagement and creativity, making each week brighter and more memorable for everyone involved.

LAHORE SCHOOL BUSINESS TECHNOLOGY SOCIETY

ORIENTATION

On October 4th, 2024, at ITC C, the B-Tech Society hosted its orientation ceremony, starting with an inspiring speech from the society's president, Mohammad Faaid. He shared the story of society's founding and highlighted its remarkable progress. Following his speech, the council members received badges to commemorate their designations within the society. The ceremony concluded with a heartfelt address from the former president, emphasizing the importance of the B-Tech Society and wishing everyone good luck for the future.

TECHXPLORE

On December 2nd, 2024, the B-Tech Society hosted TechXplore at ITC C, an exciting intra-university competition with six teams competing for a cash prize of Rs. 30,000.

The competition consisted of two dynamic rounds. In the first round, participants were tasked with creating and presenting a compelling brand identity for a hypothetical product within two minutes, testing their creativity and quick thinking. The second round introduced a mystery product concealed in a package.

Teams were given a wild card that dictated the style of their pitch, and they had three minutes to unbox and creatively sell the product, demonstrating adaptability and innovation.

After an intense competition, Team Aura emerged as the champions. Judged by Sir Fahad Pasha and Miss Shafaq Junaid, TechXplore 2024 celebrated the innovative spirit and teamwork of Lahore School of Economics students.

GUEST SPEAKER SESSION- MR. NAUMAN AZHAR

On 4th February 2025, the Lahore School Business Technology Society (B-TECH) held an engaging guest speaker session at TRRC V featuring Mr. Nauman Azhar, COO of Frag Games. The 45-minute session offered students a behind-the-scenes look into Pakistan's growing gaming industry.

Mr. Nauman shared the journey of Frag Games, highlighting key milestones and openly discussing the early challenges faced by the company. He provided valuable insights into the creative and strategic processes behind successful game development and how studios like Frag Games are shaping the local industry.

The session concluded with an interactive Q&A, where Mr. Nauman offered practical advice to aspiring entrepreneurs and future game developers, leaving attendees informed and inspired.

SPARKATHON 2025

On April 24, the B-Tech Society hosted Sparkathon 2025, its flagship event that brought together some of the brightest minds from universities nationwide. Held at the Lahore School of Economics, the competition challenged students to solve real-world problems under time pressure, guided by expert mentors and evaluated by an esteemed panel of industry professionals.

Participants demonstrated sharp problem-solving skills, innovative thinking, and strong teamwork throughout the event. After a day of intense brainstorming and strategic planning, Team Aura from LSE emerged as the champions, securing the grand prize of PKR 100,000. Team Acoustics from ITU was also recognized for their outstanding performance and creative approach.

Sparkathon 2025 was more than just a competition — it celebrated ideas, collaboration, and impact. The B-Tech Society thanks all participants, mentors, and judges for making the event successful. The spark has been lit, and this is only the beginning.

LAHORE SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS MARKETING SOCIETY

ORIENTATION

The Marketing Society's orientation was held on Tuesday, October 8th, 2024, at ITC-D from 2:00 to 3:00 PM. The event began with an introduction to the Executive Council and Department Heads, followed by a speech by the Vice President outlining the society's vision and goals for the upcoming year. These goals included raising awareness about key and evolving marketing concepts, providing a platform for students to interact with marketing professionals, offering opportunities to market their businesses, and organizing interactive competitions and collaborations with like-minded individuals.

The session also featured engaging games, prizes, and snacks. Students were encouraged to interact with council members if they had questions or were interested in joining the society. The event concluded with a group photo of the Council and an appreciation note to all participants for attending the orientation.

LAHORE SCHOOL SPORTS SOCIETY

NEWSLETTER 2024-2025

The Lahore School Sports Society (LSS) proudly presents its 2024–2025 annual newsletter, a reflection of the vibrant sporting spirit and dynamic culture that defines our institution. Over the past academic year, LSS has strived to foster inclusivity, discipline, leadership, and a healthy competitive environment through various intra- and inter-university events. This report captures the passion, resilience, and achievements of our student athletes, while highlighting the society's role in uniting the campus community through sports and co-curricular experiences.

1ST MEET-UP SESSION

At the start of the 2024-25 academic year, Lahore School Sports Society 2024-25 held a meetup session with all council members and the Director of Sports and his staff. The event aimed to introduce the team to upcoming sports initiatives, roles, and responsibilities, fostering a spirit of teamwork and dedication. The society's vision for promoting athletic excellence and school spirit was highlighted. The session served as an excellent platform for open discussion, motivating students, and reinforcing their commitment to ensuring a successful sporting season.

FRESHMEN ORIENTATION 2024

At the commencement of the 2024 academic year, the LSS Sports Society orchestrated a dynamic and engaging freshmen orientation specifically tailored for the incoming first-year students. The event served as an icebreaker, fostering camaraderie and a sense of belonging through various sporting activities and interactive games. By organizing friendly competitions and team-based challenges, the Sports Society provided a relaxed and enjoyable environment for the new students to connect with their peers, seniors, and faculty members outside of the traditional academic setting, effectively easing their transition into university life and introducing them to the vibrant extracurricular opportunities available at Lss.

INTRA ATHLETICS TOURNAMENT '24

On 25th September 2024, Lahore School of Economics hosted its annual Athletics Championship, showcasing a variety of activities that attracted about 100 attendees. Track events included the 100, 200, 400, and 800-meter races for both male and female competitors. The male and female relay races, as well as the mixed relay 4x100, were the most exciting.

While faculty, staff, and ministerial races, as well as a lively game of Musical Chairs, promoted community involvement, novelty races like the 3-legged and bag races gave a humorous touch. There was a fierce tug-of-war to end the event. The Lahore School Rector gave medals and trophies to the top performers, honouring both academic achievement and school spirit.

LUMSHOME FIXTURES '24

From November 7th to 9th, 2024, the Lahore School of Economics showcased exceptional talent at the LUMS Home Fixtures, a purely sports-based event. We sent a delegation of 175 spirited students who competed fiercely across various sports, including Badminton, Basketball, Cricket, Football, Futsal, Hockey, Netball, Table Tennis, Volleyball, and Squash. The students excelled in nearly every category, securing numerous medals. The highlight of the event was Lahore Schools' crowning achievement of winning the 'Best Delegation' trophy once again, affirming their dominance and commitment to sports excellence.

LAHORE SCHOOL'S CRICKET PREMIER LEAGUE 2024

The Lahore School's Cricket Premier League 2024, organized in November 2024, proved to be an exciting and highly competitive event that brought together talented young cricketers from the school community. The tournament showcased impressive skills and sportsmanship across all teams, culminating in a thrilling final match. Ultimately, the Phantoms team emerged victorious, earning the prestigious title and demonstrating exceptional teamwork and dedication throughout the competition. This event not only highlighted emerging cricket talent but also fostered a spirit of unity and healthy competition among students.

BNU BESTIVAL 25

From February 21st to February 23rd, 2025, we set a remarkable mark at BNU Bestival '25. The delegation from Lahore School, which included many students, won in several sports. They won gold in the female basketball, table tennis, and throwball categories. In volleyball, the men's team won silver, and gold and silver in the table tennis male categories. They also performed exceptionally well in chess and football. The highlight was our winning the Best Delegation trophy, defeating 80 other competing schools, and establishing itself as a dominant force in collegiate athletics.

LUMS SPORTS FEST '25

From January 3rd to January 8th, 2025, the Lahore School of Economics delivered a stellar performance at the LUMS Sports Fest (LSF), continuing their tradition of excellence in sports. Both the male and female teams participated across various disciplines, showcasing their talent and determination.

In Badminton, we secured gold in mixed doubles category. The girls' cricket team won gold, and the men's team secured the second position. Our futsal and netball teams secured 1st position.

We excelled in Table Tennis, winning gold and silver in the women's doubles, while the men's doubles team earned silver. The school also secured gold in women's singles and Throwball. The Female Volleyball team brought home gold medals. Overall, our outstanding performance across the board led to numerous medals, further solidifying its reputation as a force to be reckoned with in university sports. Lahore School of Economics brought home the Best Delegation Award.

LAHORE SCHOOL CHESS CHAMPIONSHIP '25

On February 26, 2025, the LSS chess championship was conducted for chess enthusiasts of both sexes. The chess team deserves praise for organizing a fantastic event and ensuring that everything ran properly. Additionally, there was a ceremony for the distribution of prizes, which was conducted by Pro Rector Dr. Azam.

LUMS WOMEN'S LEAGUE 2025

Lahore School of Economics proudly participated in the LUMS Women League 2025, showcasing a strong presence and commitment to empowering women in academia and beyond. Our delegation displayed passion, professionalism, and determination, engaging actively in all competitions and discussions. Their dedication and teamwork reflected the university's core values of leadership, inclusivity, and excellence, making a significant impact throughout the event.

In a remarkable achievement, our delegation was awarded the Best Delegation Award, recognizing their outstanding coordination, eloquence, and leadership skills. This accolade not only highlights the talent and resilience of our students but also reinforces our institution's reputation as a hub for fostering future female leaders. We are proud of our students' accomplishments and look forward to their continued success on national and international platforms.

The 2024–2025 term has been a remarkable chapter for the Lahore School Sports Society, one that reaffirms our commitment to excellence, teamwork, and holistic development. As we reflect on a year filled with energy, growth, and unforgettable moments, we celebrate not just the victories, but the spirit of participation and camaraderie that defines LSS. Looking ahead, we remain dedicated to nurturing student potential, promoting an active lifestyle, and building a more connected and empowered campus through the transformative power of sports.

LAHORE SCHOOL ECONOMICS SOCIETY

ORIENTATION

The Lahore School Economics Society kicked off the academic year 2024-2025 with a vibrant orientation event on Thursday, 26 September 2024, from 11:45 AM to 12:30 PM at ITC A, highlighting its goals and upcoming plans.

The society aims to engage first-year students through increased Econothon events and a new alumni series to guide students on career opportunities. A special talk session with professors will also discuss the current economic landscape.

The flagship Econothon events, both intra-university and inter-university, will feature intellectually stimulating competitions alongside social events that promote academic and community engagement.

Key speakers, including Dr. Waqar Wadho and Dr. Azam Chaudhry, inspired students with insights into the economics program and the broader field, motivating them to explore and excel in this dynamic discipline. The year promises enriching opportunities for growth, learning, and connection.

GUEST LECTURE SERIES 1

The Lahore School Economics Society recently hosted Ali Atta from the State Bank of Pakistan (SBP) for an engaging session on monetary policy, SBP initiatives, and career opportunities on 2nd October 2024, from 10:30 AM to 11:30 AM at TRRC 5.

Ali Atta explained how tools like open market operations and discount rates ensure economic stability, illustrating their effects on inflation and liquidity with real-world examples. He highlighted SBP's innovative projects, including the Raast instant payment system, green finance initiatives, and financial literacy programs, transforming Pakistan's financial sector.

Ali also discussed diverse career paths at SBP, focusing on roles in monetary policy, economic regulation, and research. He emphasized the importance of analytical thinking and macroeconomic expertise for students aspiring to work in these fields.

The session concluded with a dynamic Q&A segment, inspiring students to explore opportunities in economics and finance.

GUEST LECTURE SERIES 2

The Lahore School Economics Society had the honor of hosting Ahmed Iqbal, a distinguished Member of the Punjab Assembly (MPA) and an alumnus of LSE and Wharton, University of Pennsylvania, on October 29th at TRRC 5 for an insightful session on local governance and Pakistan's political direction.

Drawing from his extensive public service experience, Ahmed emphasized the vital role of local governments in improving service delivery, fostering accountability, and empowering communities. He also shed light on Pakistan's political landscape, stressing the need for governance reforms and sustainable policymaking.

Ahmed encouraged students to engage in political discourse and civic participation, highlighting the pivotal role of youth in shaping the nation's future. His talk inspired attendees to consider governance and politics as pathways for meaningful societal impact.

GUEST LECTURE SERIES 3

On November 5th, 2024, the Lahore School Economics Society hosted Ali Ring Chain from the State Bank of Pakistan (SBP) for an engaging session on the effectiveness of monetary policy and his career journey at the central bank. The event took place at TRRC 5, providing attendees with valuable insights into economic policy and professional growth in the financial sector.

Ali explained in-depth how monetary policy tools stabilize inflation, control liquidity, and promote economic growth. He also analyzed the recent interest rate cuts, discussing their implications for Pakistan's businesses, consumers, and overall economic activity.

Sharing his career progression at SBP, Ali highlighted the opportunities for young professionals to work on impactful projects. He emphasized the importance of analytical skills, adaptability, and a solid foundation in economics. The session offered students valuable insights into both the theoretical and practical aspects of monetary policy and central banking.

KINNAIRD ECON TITANS '24

On October 1, 2024, Lahore School of Economics teams participated in EconTitans '24, an inter-university competition hosted by Kinnaird College. Competing against 16 teams from across the country, the Lahore School teams showcased exceptional academic prowess and teamwork, securing an impressive 2nd and 3rd position overall.

The event highlighted the students' analytical thinking, economic insight, and collaborative spirit, further establishing LSE's reputation for academic excellence in competitive platforms.

Congratulations to all participating teams for their hard work, dedication, and remarkable achievement.

BNU COMPETITION

Adding to the semester's list of achievements, the Lahore School Economics Society participated in an inter-university competition hosted by Beaconhouse National University (BNU) in November 2024, where they proudly secured 1st place.

The victory reflected the Society's continued dedication to excellence, strategic thinking, and leadership across academic competitions. Their outstanding performance once again underscored LSE students' competitive spirit and capability on national platforms.

SPECIAL GUEST LECTURE – DR. HASEEB ASHRAF

The Lahore School Economics Society was honored to host Dr. Haseeb Ashraf, Assistant Professor at the University of Bristol, for an engaging session with fourth-year students.

An alumnus of the Lahore School of Economics, Dr. Ashraf completed his PhD at Warwick University on a scholarship and earned his MPhil from the London School of Economics (LSE). His journey from a BS graduate in 2010 to an internationally recognized researcher was a powerful source of inspiration.

Specializing in Development Economics and sustainable environmental policy design, he shared valuable academic and professional insights. The session was held with the Alumni Office and Centre for Research in Economics and Business (CREB).

FRESHMAN ECONOTHON

On 25th February 2025, the Lahore School Economics Society organized the Intra-Econothon, an exclusive competition for first-year students, held at ITC A from 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM.

The event featured three exciting rounds — Scavenger Hunt, Rapid Fire, and Pictionary — that tested participants' teamwork, critical thinking, and spontaneity. With a grand prize of PKR 50,000, the stakes were high, and the energy was even higher.

The day concluded on a high note with a vibrant drum circle social, fostering community spirit. The presence of Dr. Azam Chaudhry and Dr. Waqar added prestige to the event, making it a memorable success for students and organizers alike.

INTER-ECONOTHON

On 15th April 2025, the Lahore School Economics Society hosted the Inter-Econothon at ITC A from 10:00 AM to 7:00 PM. The event welcomed teams from leading universities, including LUMS, Forman Christian College (FCCU), and Kinnaird College (KC).

Participants competed in challenging rounds of Rapid Fire, Pictionary, and Policy Making, showcasing their skills and strategic thinking. Supported by multiple sponsors, the event also featured an exciting DJ night social to celebrate the spirit of competition and camaraderie.

The winning team took home a prize of PKR 30,000, while the runners-up received PKR 20,000, marking another significant achievement for the Society.

LAHORE SCHOOL YOUNG PEACE & DEVELOPMENT CORPS (LSYPDC)

ORIENTATION

The Lahore School Young Peace and Development Corps (LSYPDC) held its orientation on September 24, 2024. The main aim of the orientation was to get the society's future vision and agenda across the general student body. The society made it clear that it will be mobilizing students to contribute to the achievement of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

The executive council was introduced at the orientation. The event was lively and interactive. Stalls were set up by student entrepreneurs, exciting games and snacks were prepared for the attendees. The most important element was the on-the-spot sign ups for the students to join the society. This proved to be an excellent opportunity for the students to join and contribute to the achievement of the UN SDGs.

GUEST SPEAKER SESSION

On November 11, 2024, LSYPDC hosted by Uswa Sadia, PR Manager at Infinix, who spoke about the challenges women face in the workplace. Ms. Sadia highlighted issues like the gender pay gap, limited promotions due to factors like childbirth, and the dominance of men in powerful roles. Ms. Sadia introduced concepts like the "glass ceiling" and "trap doors," noting societal pressures on women. She shared her success in hiring more women at Infinix and urged students to take similar steps toward gender equality. The session offered students a realistic view of corporate life and inspired action.

BAKE SALE

LSYPDC collaborated with Environment Conservation society on February 13, 2025, to host a successful bake sale. The event aimed to raise donations for United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (UNSDGs), specifically focusing on reducing inequalities, promoting sustainable communities, and fostering partnerships. Beyond traditional baked goods, the event featured diverse stalls offering crochet items, handmade jewelry, accessories, and artisanal crafts, managed by student volunteers and small-scale entrepreneurs. This variety attracted a large audience and celebrated entrepreneurship and craftsmanship within the student community.

The collaborative effort of both societies ensured smooth planning and execution, drawing a significant number of students, faculty, and visitors. All proceeds were directed towards education, environmental, and community development programs aligned with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals. The event not only met its fundraising goals but also strengthened community bonds, supported student ventures, and showcased the power of inter-society partnership. LSYPDC reaffirmed its commitment to the Sustainable Development Goals and looks forward to future initiatives.

GUEST SPEAKER SESSION

On February 27, 2025, the society hosted Ms. Moneeza Burney, co-founder of the leadership for social uplift, previously known as the Lahore student Union (LSU).

Over the years, Moneeza has received international recognition and awards for LSU's work. In 2019, she was invited to speak about the 'Role of Youth in Creating Inclusive Societies' by the United Nations General Assembly (UNGA) in New York, US, and represent LSU at a global platform.

The session was very inspiring where Ms. Moneeza discussed her journey into volunteering and launching LSU. The leadership for social uplift is a volunteering initiative where LSU has partnered with multiple schools, NGOs, etc., allowing Pakistanis to volunteer in different cities.

She shared how important volunteering is and contributing back to society. Her insights greatly motivated the general student body, who found themselves willing to become volunteers themselves. She discussed the success of LSU over the years, especially LSU's flagship program, which later branched out into LSU's three other main programs.

RAMADAN DONATION DRIVE

From March 24 - 28, 2025, LSYPCD hosted a Ramadan Donation Drive, promoting generosity, empathy, and sustainable development. The initiative aimed to collect essential items and monetary support for underprivileged families, aligning with UN SDG 1 (No Poverty), SDG 2 (Zero Hunger), and SDG 10 (Reduced Inequalities). A central campus donation desk and mobile volunteers engaged the community, significantly increasing visibility and participation. The response was heartwarming, demonstrating the power of unity and collective action. This drive showcased how youth can contribute to global goals through local efforts, reinforcing that sustainable development begins with individual responsibility. LSYPCD plans to make this an annual tradition, expanding its reach and impact each year.

and Infrastructure), SDG 10 (Reduced Inequalities), and SDG 17 (Partnerships for the Goals), the event encouraged practical business experience and creative expression.

With diverse stalls and interactive activities like a free food stall and community painting, the event promoted creativity, inclusion, and social impact. Donations and proceeds from selected stalls were directed toward helping those in need, making it a meaningful step toward innovation, unity, and sustainable development.

This event highlighted how student-led initiatives can support the global sustainable development agenda while strengthening the university community. By promoting entrepreneurship, encouraging creativity, and fostering a culture of support and engagement, the event set a positive precedent for future projects aligned with the SDGs.

HUNR BAZAAR

The society organized Hunr Bazaar on April 16, 2025, to empower students with small businesses by giving them a platform to sell products, promoting innovation, self-reliance, and economic empowerment. LAHORE SCHOOL FILM AND MEDIA SOCIETY

The year 2024–2025 was nothing short of cinematic magic for the Film and Media Society. With creativity as our compass and collaboration as our strength, we ventured into new territories, turned dreams into visuals, and built memories that will last a lifetime. Here's a heartfelt look back at the events and milestones that defined our journey.

INTERVIEWS: THE CURTAIN RISES

We began our journey with the Film and Media Society Interviews, where eager, passionate students stepped into the spotlight. It wasn't just about selecting members — it was about finding storytellers, visionaries, and creators who were ready to shape the society's future. The energy was palpable, as applicants spoke about their inspirations, favorite films, and creative ideas. These interviews laid the foundation for a team that would go on to achieve incredible things together.

FILMS & MEDIA SOCIETY ORIENTATION

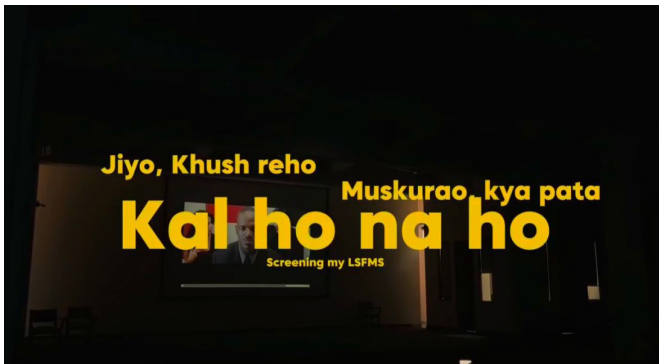

The Films & Media Society made a powerful return with its Orientation held on September 26th 2024 in ITC A, kicking off the year with lights, camera, and fresh creative energy. New and returning students gathered to learn about the society's vision, past projects, and exciting plans ahead. From filmmaking to content creation, the session set the tone for a year filled with storytelling, innovation, and cinematic exploration. The spotlight is on—and the journey has officially begun!

MOVIE SCREENING

The Films & Media Society hosted a memorable screening of the popular Indian movie Kal Ho Naa Ho on December 6, 2024, at ITC-A. Students gathered to enjoy this emotional and heartwarming film, sparking lively discussions and a shared appreciation for cinema's power to connect and inspire. The event was a wonderful way to bring the community together through storytelling and film. The event created a nostalgic and emotional atmosphere, as students gathered under soft lights and cozy setups to watch the film together. Popcorn, laughter, and a few teary eyes made it a memorable night that reminded us all of why we love film because it connects us, moves us, and brings us closer.

LUMS FILUMS SUCCESS: LIGHTS, CAMERA, VICTORY!

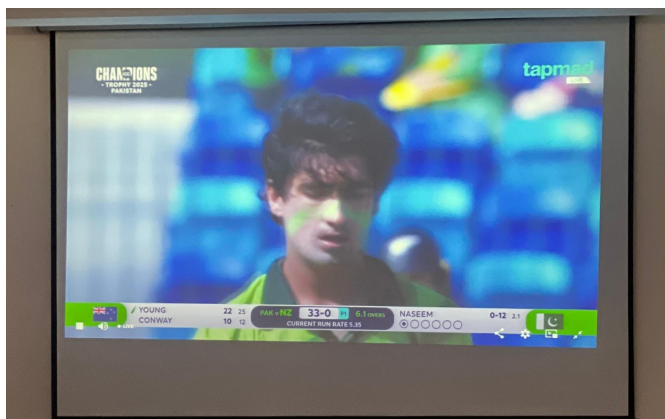

One of proudest moments of Lahore School of Economics was our participation in LUMS FILUMS on 3rd January 2025 one of the most prestigious student film festivals in Pakistan. Five of our talented council members entered the Short Film category, pouring their hearts into a project that blended storytelling, cinematography, and emotion. Their hard work and brilliance shone through as they emerged victorious, securing first place and bringing home a win that elevated the society to national recognition. This triumph was not just a win — it was a testament to our passion and talent.

MATCH SCREENING

We didn't stop at films this year, we also brought the thrill of live sports to campus with match screenings that turned our venue into a stadium of excitement. Whether it was cricket or football, the cheers, chants, and electric atmosphere made these screenings unforgettable. It was all about togetherness, where fans came together to celebrate victories, scream at close calls, and create unforgettable match-day memories.

PINK RIBBON BAKE SALE

To kick off the academic year with purpose, the Lahore School Welfare Society organized the Pink Ribbon Bake Sale on October 31, 2024, in honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month. The initiative aimed to raise both awareness and funds for Pink Ribbon Pakistan, a leading organization working toward breast cancer prevention and early detection. The campus came alive with student-run stalls offering a wide selection of homemade and commercial baked goods, all wrapped in shades of pink. The event was not just about sweet treats—it was about uniting the student body around a cause that affects millions. Through active participation and community spirit, the society successfully raised funds, which were donated in full to support Pink Ribbon Pakistan's national campaign for awareness, screening, and treatment advocacy.

GUEST SPEAKER SESSION BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

Following the bake sale, students had the opportunity to attend an eye-opening awareness session led by Prof. Dr. Muhammad Arshad Cheema, a respected figure in the healthcare field. His talk shed light on the critical importance of early detection, regular screenings, and public awareness in the fight against breast cancer. Dr. Cheema also emphasized the essential role that educated youth play in shaping public understanding of health issues and driving change within their communities. His words resonated with the audience, transforming the event from a fundraising activity into a platform for learning and social responsibility. The session left a lasting impression, inspiring students to not only support but also advocate for meaningful causes.

WINTERFEST'25

On February 10, 2025, the Lahore School Social Welfare Society organized a campus-wide Bake Sale to raise funds for two of its upcoming initiatives: the visit to SOS Children's Village and the Ramadan Drive. The stall featured a variety of delicious student-made and commercial treats, drawing in enthusiastic support from the campus community. Funds raised through this initiative were used to prepare goodie bags for the children at SOS Village and assemble Ramadan care packages for families in need. The bake sale not only showcased the students' creativity and teamwork but also embodied their commitment to giving back through purposeful action.

SPREADING SMILES AT SOS CHILDREN'S VILLAGE

The Lahore School Social Welfare & Character Building Society made a heartwarming visit to SOS Children's Village, Bedpan Road, on February 12, 2025. This initiative aimed to bring joy, comfort, and companionship to the children. The Character Building Society led a series of fun, engaging activities that quickly turned into a lively and cheerful playtime. In parallel, the Social Welfare Society thoughtfully arranged goodie bags packed with snacks and small gifts, which were warmly received by the children. Their excitement and smiles were a beautiful reminder of how small acts of kindness can leave a lasting impact. The visit not only uplifted the children but also deepened the spirit of empathy and volunteerism among the society members.

RAMADAN DRIVE – MARCH 2025

In March 2025, during the holy month of Ramadan, the Lahore School Social Welfare Society launched its Ramadan Drive to support underprivileged families. In preparation, the society set up a stall on campus where students sold handmade products and baked goods. The initiative saw enthusiastic participation, with students not only contributing items for sale but also encouraging their peers to support the cause. The proceeds from the stall were used to prepare Ramadan care packages filled with essential food and household items. These packages were later distributed to families in need, helping them observe the month with comfort and dignity. This student-led effort highlighted the spirit of giving and social responsibility that defines the holy month—and the society's mission.

Held on February 27, 2025, "Behind the Shayr" was a multi-format celebration of poetic expression. The event included an Urdu and English essay writing competition, a farzi mushaira presented by the students of the society that tested literary recall, and culminated in a captivating musical performance by Mr. Shamoon Fida, an eastern music instructor at the Lahore School. The evening honored the legacy of poetic traditions while bridging them with contemporary voices.

TALES OF A BARD

On April 30, 2025, ITC-A was transformed into a whimsical realm for “Tales of a Bard.” The day began with a scavenger hunt that led participants along the symbolic “Red Brick Road,” uncovering clues rooted in literary lore around the entire campus. The hunt concluded with a magical musical performance titled Little Town, an imaginative fusion of Wicked, The Wizard of Oz, and Glinda the Good Witch, bringing fairytales and theatrical storytelling to life.

DASTAN-E-DIL VOL. IV

The latest volume of Dastan-e-Dil took place on May 20, 2025. This fourth edition featured a dynamic intra-university poetry slam where participants shared verses that bared their hearts and souls in both Urdu and English. The night reached its crescendo with a stirring musical performance by Goher Mumtaz of Jal band, blending poetry and melody into an unforgettable celebration of emotion, language, and music.

SOCIETY DINNER & FAREWELL MEETUP

On May 27, 2025, the Lahore School Society of Literature came together to celebrate a year of exceptional achievements with a dinner at Mandarin Kitchen.

This informal farewell meetup was a refreshing break from the intense efforts and dedication poured into the year. It was a relaxed evening filled with laughter, stories, and heartfelt goodbyes. Members socialized freely, unwinding and appreciating the camaraderie built throughout the year. A perfect way to wrap up a memorable journey.

LAHORE SCHOOL ENTREPRENEURSHIP AND BUSINESS SOCIETY

ORIENTATION

The society successfully held its Orientation session on September 19, 2024, featuring two distinguished industry leaders.

1. Mr. Muhammad Dayyan – CEO, DSME Global
2. Ms. Amna Tahir – Training & Talent Acquisition Lead, Fauji Foods

Both speakers engaged the audience with their experiences, offering guidance on career development, entrepreneurship, and industry trends. The session proved to be an enriching opportunity for students to learn directly from professionals at the forefront of their fields.

During the event, the society was formally introduced, and badges were distributed to the newly appointed council members, marking the beginning of a promising academic year.

11TH ENTREPRENEURSHIP AND INNOVATION EXHIBITION

SEBS and Incubation Lab recently hosted the 11th Entrepreneurship and Innovation Exhibition, a key event for graduating students. The exhibition, held from November 25 to 28, 2024, showcased students' creativity, innovation, and entrepreneurial spirit, making it a highlight of the academic year.

Each graduating section organized marketing days and decorated their designated areas with vibrant displays, competing for cash prizes in various categories. The exhibits featured a wide range of innovations, from tech products to sustainable solutions, reflecting the diverse talents and interests of the students.

The event provided students with a platform to present their business ideas, marketing strategies, and future plans to a diverse audience, demonstrating the practical application of their learning and the entrepreneurial mindset nurtured by the Lahore School of Economics.

GUEST SPEAKER SESSION WITH MS. AMNA TAHIR

On February 14, 2025, the society hosted a session with Ms. Amna Tahir, Professional Development Qualifications Manager at Cambridge International, on the topic “Building a Resilient Career: Strategic Skills for Success in a Dynamic Job Market.”

During the session, Ms. Tahir shared valuable insights on how to strategically develop skills that align with the evolving demands of today’s job market. She emphasized the importance of adaptability, continuous learning, and proactive career planning. The session was highly interactive, featuring on-the-spot exercises and a practical case study that allowed students to apply the concepts discussed. The engaging format encouraged participation and provided students with actionable strategies to strengthen their professional development journey.

GUEST SPEAKER SESSION WITH MR. USMAN BUTT

The society hosted a guest speaker session featuring Mr. Usman Butt, CEO and Founder of RepairDesk, on February 27, 2025.

Mr. Butt shared his inspiring journey of transforming a simple startup idea into a successful global Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) company. His insights resonated deeply with students interested in technology and entrepreneurship, as he emphasized the importance of perseverance, innovation, and adaptability in navigating the business world. The session concluded with an engaging Q&A segment, where students had the opportunity to seek guidance and ask questions related to startup growth and the tech industry.

VISIT TO SABROSO FACTORY

The Entrepreneurship and Business Society took the initiative to arrange an industrial visit for members of different societies to the Sabroso Factory in Sheikhpura.

The visit provided students with an enriching experience, offering firsthand insights into the company’s supply chain and production processes. The Sabroso team explained each stage in detail through a comprehensive presentation, allowing students to connect theory with practical industry operations.

The experience was both educational and enjoyable, made even better by Sabroso’s exceptional hospitality.

LAHORE SCHOOL FINANCE AND INVESTMENT SOCIETY

ORIENTATION

The society started the academic year with a lively orientation on September 18, 2024. The event featured a Finance Pop Quiz for participants to compete for rewards and improve their financial knowledge. A registration booth was available for students interested in joining the society. Partnering with Kickstart Café, Second Cup, and Burger Lab, exclusive discount vouchers were offered to Lahore School students, adding a special touch to the day. The event wrapped up with a badge ceremony for the newly appointed council. The orientation successfully blended professionalism and fun, setting a positive tone for the year ahead.

GUEST SPEAKER SESSION WITH KALPAY FOUNDERS

The society hosted a session with Mr. Shershah Hassan and Mr. Hasan Mubarak, co-founders of KalPay, a fintech startup revolutionizing financial services in Pakistan.

The session, held on November 11, 2024, provided students with valuable insights into the challenges and rewards of entrepreneurship in the fintech sector. The speakers shared their entrepreneurial journeys, highlighting the sacrifices, failures, and milestones that propelled KalPay to success. Their stories showcased resilience, innovation, and a commitment to social impact through finance. The event exemplified the society's mission to connect academic learning with industry exposure, emphasizing the convergence of finance, technology, and innovation in addressing societal challenges.

FINVESTA 2.0

The society hosted Finvesta 2.0, a financial competition for students to showcase their critical thinking, teamwork skills, and real-world financial acumen on February 19, 2025.

The event drew over 15 teams and 35 participants who competed in three rounds. The first round was a Finance Scavenger Hunt, followed by a Quiz Competition on financial concepts and current affairs. The final round, a Mock Investment Pitch, challenged teams to propose investment strategies for real-world companies. Dr. Mehreen Furqan, an instructor at the Lahore School, judged the final round, providing valuable feedback to enhance the participants' learning experience. The competition concluded with an award ceremony to recognize the top teams for their strategic insights.

STUDENT START-UP COLLABORATION DRIVE

The society launched an initiative to support entrepreneurial talent within Lahore School's community. The society partnered with six student-led startup businesses to showcase their products to a wider audience.

Each startup brought something unique: Namkeen Stories with handcrafted vision boards, bookmarks, and personalized cards, Bake House with homemade cakes and pastries, Cravv with crowd-pleasing snacks like corndogs, Kya Chai Hai with a variety of flavorful chai, Clio with aesthetic ceramic art, and Sands with stylish instant hijabs. LSFIS promoted these brands on social media to encourage support for homegrown talent. This initiative celebrated creativity, ambition, and the entrepreneurial spirit among students, highlighting that big dreams often start small.

LAHORE SCHOOL CHARACTER BUILDING SOCIETY

ORIENTATION

The society held its orientation for the new academic year on September 25, 2024. The event was organized to welcome students and introduce them to the society's mission of fostering integrity, empathy, and personal growth. The orientation included interactive games, thematic stalls, and a registration booth. The newly appointed council members were introduced, and attendees were briefed on the society's vision, goals, and upcoming initiatives. The event ended with a musical performance by students Hanan and Abdullah, setting a positive tone for the society's activities in the upcoming year.
